

The Society for the Protection & Care of Children

2012 ANNUAL REPORT

Dear Loyal Supporters,

The Society for the Protection and Care of Children (SPCC) has chosen to focus this year's Annual Report on the successes accomplished by the families served by SPCC; just as our society has chosen to focus on the heroes that emerge in the wake of crisis. Financial challenges are not new in the profit and non-profit world, however our awareness is heightened and the impact is a reality. SPCC is committed to securing the funds necessary to deliver critical services, which are respectful and help families to reach their true potential.

Families that experience traumatic events and flourish give us reason to pause and admire the strength of the human spirit. Please take a moment to read the following stories and you too will be inspired. The families we serve are the best testament in validating the importance of the work done by SPCC.

Please consider supporting SPCC with the resources necessary to provide services to the many families on our waiting lists.

Sincerely,

Lisa Butt

SPCC President & CEO

From “chaos and turmoil”... to peace and success!

A mother's account of the impact of SPCC's Family Trauma services with Hilda Saltos, LCSW

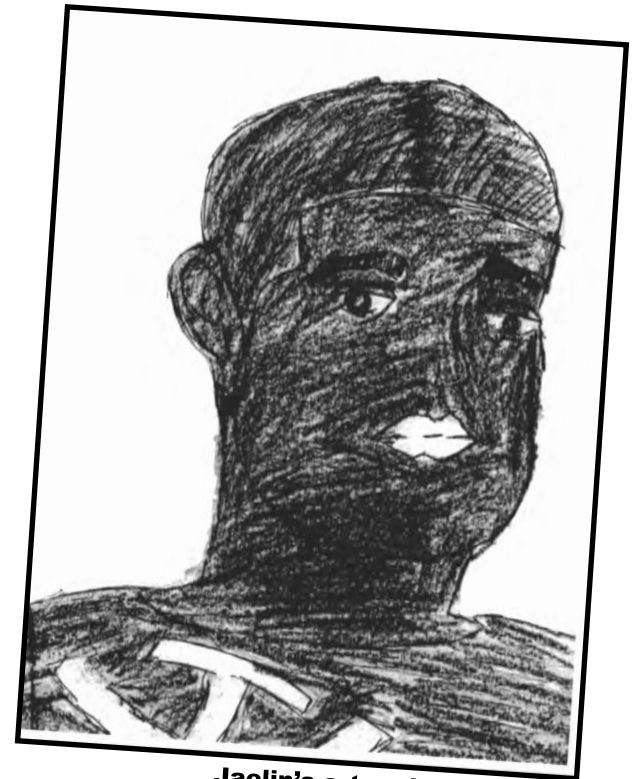

Hello! My name is Marthenia. I have two sons - Tahmir & Jaelin. I'd like to give a brief overview of how my family became involved with SPCC. In 2004, I was married with two young children. However, our home was not a happy one! It was filled with chaos and turmoil. Needless to say, I had to make a decision. I could continue living this way and let it have a negative effect on my children or I could do something about it. I was definitely at a crossroad in my life. My ultimate decision was to proceed with divorce. Once I began the process and began attending court, “things” took a turn for the worse. My children and I felt trapped!

After attending one of MANY court appearances, a law guardian for the children asked if I would like a referral to SPCC. He explained to me what SPCC would do to help my children and I. I agreed, and about a week later I met with Hilda Saltos. The rest was history! Hilda was very understanding, helpful and kind. She was very instrumental (yet non-judgmental) in assisting me with referrals and advice which enabled me to move forward.

Fast forward...it is now 2013. My children and I are blessed to be living happy, peaceful and successful lives. We own our own home, and I am now working as a licensed practical nurse. Both Tahmir and Jaelin have a strong interest in art. Both are also honor roll students, with excellent attendance and a bright future ahead! We are very thankful to have met Hilda and been able to utilize the services of SPCC! ✧

Did you know?

When a fatality occurs in Monroe County in which a child is involved, SPCC is called in to provide immediate counseling and trauma services to the family.

SAFE VISITATION for families...

SPCC is pleased to announce the revitalization of the Safe Havens component to our Supervised Visitation and Exchange Program (SVP). For women and child victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking and child abuse, safe parent-child visitation can be a matter of life or death. Renewed funding through the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) has allowed our program to revise and strengthen existing policies and procedures in an effort to maximize safety for victims. All supervised visits and exchanges will take place through SPCC, located in the Monroe County Pediatric and Visitation Center at 451 E. Henrietta Road. This funding will allow us to serve an additional 75 families per year who have been impacted by domestic violence. *This funding has been renewed in collaboration with the Monroe County Department of Human Services, Monroe County Family Court, and Alternatives for Battered Women.

In their words:

“I think SVP is an excellent program that really helps my family. It’s the best thing that has come my way, providing contact for my daughter and her father without putting our safety at risk.”

“My children and I are VERY thankful we have SPCC!”

A word cloud centered around the theme of family support and safety. The most prominent words are 'thankful', 'children', 'support', and 'safe'. Other visible words include 'SPCC', 'SVP', 'visit', 'helps', 'comfortable', 'specialist', 'supervisor', 'arise', 'our', 'way', 'with', 'express', 'family', 'pleased', 'always', 'able', 'feel', 'talk', 'think', 'really', 'great', 'solve', 'best', 'contact', 'daughter', 'program', 'excellent'.

“I cannot express how pleased I am with my children’s supervisor. She has always made my children and I feel comfortable and safe.”

“I am really able to talk with my Visitation Specialist to problem solve issues that may arise and having her support has been great.”

Thoughts expressed by the Custodial Parents/Victims served by SPCC’s Visitation Program

A HUGE thank you to SPCC's Teen Parent (TAPSS) program!

A letter from Ashley

When SPCC first began helping me, I was very hesitant to open up to my counselor. In a very short time I learned that I could trust her and also ask for help and support. I learned many different parenting and life skills that are helpful in my every day life. This program has assisted myself and my daughter for the past two years and I would highly recommend it to other young mothers. The staff do not tell you how to parent your child, but how to handle the everyday dilemmas that we all have to deal with. I want to thank everyone associated with SPCC for everything you've all done to help not only me, but also the community. You all have made a huge difference. ~ Ashley

Common Challenges for Young Parents Include:

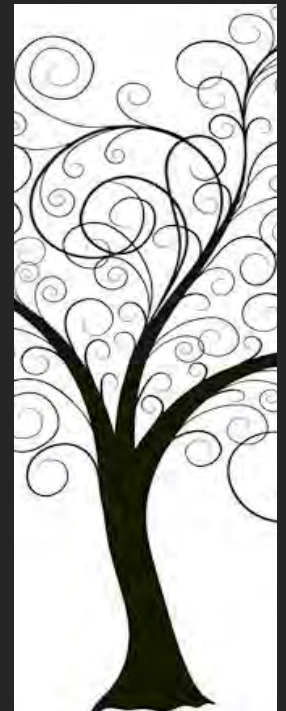

- Lack of family support
- Little education or job experience
- Lack of transportation
- Unsafe or unstable housing

Despite MANY odds, 85% of young mothers completing our program have obtained employment, furthered their education and 15% have enrolled in college!
